FARAD CONTINUATION SHEET.
IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY NAGPUR BENCH : NAGPUR.

CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.1973/2007.

Abdul Salim Ab.Sheikh ..vs.. State of Maharashtra.

=-=-=-

present applicant. Police have arrested the present applicant and Jasbirsingh also. Jasbirsingh was found to be juvenile hence he has been granted bail and his trial has been separated. The present applicant/accused prays for bail. It is not disputed that the first application filed by the present applicant has been rejected by this court. The only ground upon which the bail is claimed is that Jasbirsingh has been granted bail by this court. Copy of the said order has been placed before me. The present applicant cannot be released on parity because of the fact that Jasbirsingh has been essentially released on the bail because of the fact that he is a juvenile. Without consideration of the merits and the material available against Jasbirsingh, he was granted bail being a juvenile. In view of this, simply because Jasbirsingh has been released on bail, that cannot be a ground to grant bail to the present applicant. The nature of the crime is very serious and that does not call for any indulgence. In the circumstances, the application is rejected.
